“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. George will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see George again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. George seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ When I think of Georgie, my cousin, I remember his big smile and laugh. He was a 'safe' person, gentle and sweet. My prayers are with you, Gerald, Ruthie and family. I'm sorry I can't be with you today!

“ As a child, I can remember Uncle George and Uncle Marty coming out across the state to visit with Grandpa, Grandma and always tailing behind was their Schnauzer, Schnauzy. Uncle George was always so full of laughs and smiles. I will never forget his warm soul that always exuted from him during those long ago visits and even up to the present days. For me, Uncle George leaves behind a wonderful legacy of genuine kindness. Love you Uncle George.

“ Two memories came to mind when I was informed yesterday that Georgie had passed on and that his spirit is now surrounded in everlasting Love and Peace. A reunion indeed. The first memory was during the Holiday's in which all of the cousins were at our Grandparents / Sanders house. We were allowed to run around, play the piano, play hide and seek and just enjoy each other's company. Georgie had a wonderful smile and laugh and we were blessed to have him there with us as with all the cousins. Indeed, these were special times that are resurrected in my mind at times such as this- which is not the way it should be. The second memory is when I went to visit him approx 4-5 years ago near my work location. Immediately, he recognized me and welcomed me by introducing me to the staff and others that lived with him. He explained some of the daily routine that he had while he was living there. I went away knowing he was being cared for but also how much time had passed without seeing each other. Knowing Georgie, along with having Emily as my Daughter, I know deep in my heart that we can learn so much from the special people in our lives and that anyone that has not had the opportunity, or taken the time to have that experience, misses the gifts that were given to them to share with others and touch all that they come in contact. Say hello to everyone and make sure Grandpa Sanders, my Dad, George, Don and Bob do not get too serious while playing cards. Also, make sure you have many seven up floats. Your Cousin Joe

“ Looking at George's picture, I'm left with feeling how innocent he was and hope that he had some happiness during his time on this earth. I know that he was loved by his family. I'm also hoping that in the next life he finds the peace and happiness that he deserves. Aunt Betty and I are thinking of him and his sister Ruth and brother Gerald. We love you. Cousin Dave
