“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. George will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see George again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. George seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ To all the Rowe family: Your dad was such a wonderful guy always driving to fife and drum trips and entertaining us the whole way, and always chatting with us when we came over to the house. Even helping us with practical jokes on his own kids. I always loved being around George and Shirley. He will truley be missed!!

“ It;s really a memory,one of the first things I thought of when I heard the news. Denise and I were in highschool and were in the pool when George came home from work. He yelled at both of us because the dog was in the pool and he had told us no dog in the pool;. So after he yelled at us and I thought he was really mad. We put the dog out of the pool and she ran over and shook water all over George. Denise and I thought we were really in trouble. Then he started laughing at us and the dog, and just went to the back door and yellrd Shirley bring me a towel. Im not sure why that is what I picked to remember, probley because he always loved his kids and his dogs. May you meet the rainbow bridge that all animal lovers know connectes them back to there animal friends. And may your grandson be there to greet you and give you comfort, With many memorys, Cindy Richards
