“ Our sincerest condolences to Jerry, Judith and all of George's family. Your heart may be heavy but cherish the warm memories. A kinder man you could not find. Always a smile followed by laughter. We treasured the times spent with George when visiting Dad in Michigan. George never quite made the trip to Australia, but he talked about wanting to go and how he enjoyed travelling the places he DID travel to. Proud of his life, work and his "hobby" archery, he was never short of a story to tell, a joke to share, and enjoyed listening to others tell theirs. Meijers & Ikea will not be the same! So many will miss you, George. So many memories you helped make.

“ George, my dear friend. We worked together for many, many years. After retirement, we walked the malls, talked for hours, drank coffee most mornings, travelled together, and shared happy & sad times. I'll miss you.

“ George always had that smile on his face. To the people that knew him called him " Lucky George" because it was probably better than a 50/50 chance that Lucky George was taking one or two of the Raffle pots from the retiree meetings. George was a friend and will be missed.
