“ My heart goes out in Deepest Sympathy to the George C. Shollack Family and Friends. I'm truly sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one George, he will truly be missed... The way I endure the stress of losing someone in death is the Bible God's unfailing word that is Inspired. And at (2Timothy 3:16 says: All Scripture is inspired of God and beneficial for teaching, for reproving, for setting things straight or (correcting), for disciplining in righteousness.. So, based on this verse I put full trust in the Inspired word of God. And I've learned that he will soon resurrect our dead loved ones on a restored paradise earth as he promised at (Psalms 37:verses 10,11, and 29. This is what we've been praying for in the Lord's Prayer that God's Kingdom by Christ will soon take over earth's affairs and the last enemy death and Satan will be destroyed. (1Corinthians 15:26); Revelation 12:12. I hope this gives some comfort. see www.jw.org for more information about this.

“ George, was a great guy. We knew George at Trinity Church. When he collected the offering plate, he would always hold on to it, before passing it on. It was always good for a quick laugh. My wife and I will miss George. John & Marlene Roan

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Geroge will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Geroge again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Geroge seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
