“ I attended Georgeen and Fred’s wedding 50 years ago and was preparing to attend their 50th anniversary celebration until she was hospitalized. It was hard for me to believe how quickly she passed after her gardening accident. She was a great hostess to me when I visited during the several baseball stadia trips I had with Fred.

My wife, SiRi and I share her family’s grief over her loss. May she rest in eternal peace.

“ Georgeen and I were co-workers and instantly she became like a second mom to me. I am so blessed to have known her. We shared good times, hard times and everything in between. I missed her so much when she decided to retire but loved that she would keep in touch. I will miss the phone calls of "Hey do you want to do lunch?". She was a wonderful lady, friend, mentor and confidant. May God welcome her to her heavenly home and may he give comfort and peace to her loved ones like only he can.

“ My mom and I met Kelly and Georgeen literally when we were both being pushed in a stroller. I grew up with Kelly and spent many, many days at her house. Georgeen fed me, bathed me and took us places. That tells you how long I've known the Kirks. Rest in eternal peace Georgeen. ❤️
