“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Gerald will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Gerald again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Gerald seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ "If your heart is broken, do not wrap it in bandages but leave it wide open to the weather. Let the sun warm it, let the rain wash it, and let the wind plant it with seeds of new growth. Before you know it, your poor broken heart will have grown a garden of glorious flowers. People will visit it, birds will sing in it and the wind will bear its seeds to other broken hearts". The Broken Heart, from a book entitled, Psalms for the Road.
