“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Gerald will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Gerald again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Gerald seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Dear Virginia & Susan; We are saddened to hear about Gerry's passing. I just retuned home from up north this afternoon when Sue showed me the obituary in the paper. Sorry, we could not get to the funeral home or to the funeral. Fifty-four is so young to pass away. Had Gerry been sick for a long period of time or was it a sudden illness? I will always have fond memories of the Brock family. Our condolences to you both and our prays are with you. Yours respectfully, Gary & Susan Brown

“ Jerry was friends with my older brother Steve. I always remember Jerry as a genuinely nice guy that treated me and my parents with respect. Jerry came to my high school graduation party many many years ago and i'll always remember Jerry's friendly smile and demeanor. I'll always remember Jerry with fond memories. R.I.P Jerry!

“ I was just contacted by someone who told me of Jerry's passing. I'm in shock, I just saw Jerry doing his walking exercise along hines. I went to High School w/ Jerry and have alot of good memories of those years. Jerry had a tremendous zest for life, he was an incredible sports enthuseist and loved playing basketball. I had the pleasure of meeting his parents and remember when Jerry became a father and how proud and excited he was. God Bless you Jerry you were a good man and have left us way too soon. My sympathies to Jerry's family.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Brock family. Jerry was always friendly to my granddaughter Elodie, who lived across the hall. (Hillary Deleszek is my daughter.) Tho' we were 'across the hall' acquaintances, he'd always stop and talked to me. Elodie hid behind me but, she still loved Jerry.
