“ We were saddened to hear of Jerry's passing. He lived directly across the street from us on Revere for a number of years until we moved in 2005. He was always kind, and showed a special interest in and warmth towards our children. His house was the best place on the block for trick-or-treating on Halloween! The kids loved to get the coins that he had set aside for them. During the summer, I would often find gifts from his garden on my front porch. He was an all-around great neighbor, and I always enjoyed chatting with him. With prayers for God's comfort in your grief, Lisa Whitehead

“ So sad to hear about Jerry. We spent many years hanging out on coffee breaks with fellow coworkers at DDC. Always smiling always joking around. He made working fun. God bless you Jerry.

“ Dear Brother Jerry,
Your friendship filled the void in my life of not having a brother. Many times your counsel has changed my life for the better. Your sharing of friends, travels, and common interest, provided assets to my life I never imagined. Our experiences together will always be a corner stone to base my future decisions on. Your caring demeanor has extended into our children’s life as an uncle’s relationship. Anybody could approach you and find a genuine accepting heart. Thanks for all the great memories. Bless you brother, you will be missed.
