“ "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus) voice and come out." Found at John 5:28, 29. Isn't comforting to know that our dead loved ones will be here again. Jehovah God's word the bible gives many other scriptures that can comfort you at the greivous time.

“ Dear Shari, Mikki and Janise, and your families, We are so sorry to hear of your dear Mom's passing. We surely would of been there had we known. She was a sweet heart and special soul. We know how much she cherished you all and how beloved she had to have been. Please accept our deepest sympathy and heartfelt prayers that God hold you all especially close and comfort you with His great Love. May you have the peace & comfort only God can provide. May you and your loved ones trust in Lord with all your hearts. "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit." We're glad for your Mom that she had such a loving family. We cared for her very much and loved your Grandma & Grandpa (Uncle Johnny & Aunt Geri). They were very special and always good to us.

“ Dear Shari, Nikki & Janise, we were so saddened to hear of your mother's passing.. We were neighbors for so many years and all of you and the Choma girls grew up together. Your Mom and I spent many hours talking on the phone and on the porch about all of you. Those are wonderful memories that I will never forget. Our prayers are with all of you. Always remember how much she loved all of you. With loving thoughts, Mr. & Mrs. Choma

“ To Shari, Mikki and Janise/Family~
I am so very sorry for the loss of your beloved Mother.
I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers.
I have worked with Shari for many years and know how close knit the Bialas family was. I have three daughters and know that sisters together can help to get each other through. I hope that you find comfort and strength in one another that will help to get your through this difficult time.
