“ *My husband Dennis and I moved in next to the Kierzek's in 1965. My daughter Heather was born a few months later. We lived there for the happiest 12 years of our life. The neighbors were more than friends, we were like family. Betty was the friendliest and most giving of all of them. Betty and I talked all the time, across the backyard fence, sitting in lawn chairs in front of our garages, and sitting at Betty's kitchen table. She always had delicious home cooked food in her packed refrigerator, and always wanted to feed you something. We had many wild and crazy parties in our basement or in our backyards. Even though we moved to Florida 20 years ago, I kept in touch with Betty with phone calls and cards. I would stop to see her and the old neighborhood when I was in Michigan and she always welcomed those visits. I consider her one of my oldest and dearest friends. May she Rest In Peace.
