“ I am so sorry for your lose. I know that this is a hard time for all of you. I will be continue to think and pray for your family. Just remember the good times. In time your memories will make you laugh instead of cry. She will always be there, so don't be afraid to talk to her. Her physical presence may be gone, but she loved you so she will always be there with you.

“ Lovely lady of grace: You really had a nack for making others laugh. I think of the things you said, even though you are no longer with us, i laugh. thank you for the many jokes you shared with us. You have blessed the world by leaving us with your ovely daughter, my friend, Donna... She has your spirit of laughter. Your grand-daughter Misty, she has your fiesty spirit, yet she is so like you in a very silent and sweet way. They will be all that you prayed that they will be. I believe you left knowing that God will see them through. Always loving you, Your other daughter, Debbie
