“ My mother, my hero, my biggest cheerleader passed away last night. To say I am devastated is an understatement. She was beautiful inside and out. She supported me in everything I did and always told me that she was proud of me. She loved telling people where I worked and my title. She had never really liked sports but once I got my job she started learning the rules. She followed Michigan sports and was especially fond of Michigan Football, basketball (she loves Juwan Howard and he was always so kind to her) and of course softball with Hutch and Bonnie. She loved going to the games and at times, she knew more about the players and recruits than I did. She loved calling me her baby. She had the best sense of humor and was always laughing. She loved our family parties in the backyard and in the community room. She loved all of us unconditionally. I loved spending time with her and was so happy when my parents moved 4 min from me. I spent a lot of time with her doing activities and we especially loved playing bingo together. She was willing to do anything I wanted. Whenever I would come to see her, she would greet me with a smile, say HEY! And give me a hug and a kiss. The last couple of days she did not talk much, but the other day she looked at me and said HEY. I love you more and will miss you forever. The apple does not fall far from the tree and I am proud to be your baby. I love you more!! ❤️💔💔💔💔
