“ I met Glen when he was stationed at Whiting Field in Milton Florida, so many years ago. I was 17 and from Arizona and had ran away from home. Glen made me return to Arizona, holding me in a phone booth until I gave up and called my parents, who wired me money to come home. I got to visit with him again when he came to Arizona to visit his Dad, I believe he went on to Tennessee after that. It wasn't until I finally grew up that I realized what he had done for me. Without him, I can't imagine what would have happened to me. I know he was my guardian angel and he was sent to protect me. I'm thankful that a couple of months before he passed away, I found him on Facebook and had the opportunity to thank him and tell him that I never forgot him and what he did for me long ago. A truly special man, I know he's with Jesus now.
