“ Here it is many years after your passing, dear childhood friend Glen. I was chatting with my brother Stan reminiscing. Afterwards thought to look you up. That brought me here to this page. And happy childhood memories of dance classes and ensuing recitals with your wonderful mother and you kids. My love to all your loved ones. Peace.

“His spirit goes out, he returns to the ground; on that very day his thoughts perish.” This scripture can be found in Jehovah God's word the bible at Psalm 146:4, along with many other comforting scriptures. Is it not wonderful to know that your dead loved one is not somewhere in fiery torment.

“ When I think of all that's Good in a person, that is Glenn. The same goes for everyone he ever met, he always saw the good in people, casting aside their faults. I truly never knew anyone with so many friends. His knowledge and diverse interests allowed him to connect with others, by taking part in whatever people were talking about or doing. Glenn lived life and enjoyed it all. Always able to relish the pleasure in everything he did. Glenn always went out of his way to help anyone. He would often say to me, "I want to be the hero". Well, the meaning of the word Hero is: One that is much admired; and Glenn was, by all that were fortunate enough to know him.

“ Gonna miss my music buddy. Since my thoughts echo so much that has already been written, I will share what I found last night... Glenn... See you on the flip side, Bud... You Aced this quote...

"None of us know how much time we have left on this earth. What is left in the end are our actions; the memories and how you made people feel. What you want to leave behind is people to remember you with Love."
