“ I first met Glenn in high school and we remained close buddies until I moved away in the late '70s. We worked together at the local supermarket and then the gas station, we were teammates on DC's football team, we were roommates in college and he attended my wedding in '77. The last time I saw him was at a class reunion several years ago and he was the same old Glenn. There are simply too many good memories to share just one here but I am proud to say that Glenn was my friend and I will miss him dearly. May God bless him and his family.
