“ While baking Christmas cookies this weekend with some new friends, we recalled the tradition of Mom and Gloria getting together to do the combined mass Christmas cookie thing every year; running back and forth between the two houses throughout the day, while the boys all played in the snow, then "taste-testing" the finished products. Yum! We still make some of the recipies we got from Gloria, and have now continued the tradition with our own friends.

You are in our thoughts and prayers this holiday season.
