“ Dear family of Mrs. Reed, I am truly saddened by your great loss. I have found comfort and strength from God's word the promises found in His word the bible: The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Just imagine how wonderful life will be when we are reunited with our loved ones right here on a paradise earth.-Psalms 37:10,11,29

“ Tomorrow we will say our last goodbyes until that moment we meet again in the Lords house. You will truely be missed, so very much. I am ever so thankful for so many cherished memories, and yummy recipes you shared with me (just for starters, your chicken and dumplings) I am so happy I have them to share with Tyler Micheal. He loves to cook, and he enjoys the memories I share with him. Your laughter and sense of humor that captured us all, will always remain in our hearts.

“ The last time we saw Cousin Gloria was at the Díaz Family Reunion in McGregor, Texas.

She was full of life, laughing, smiling & giving hugs to us all.

We have a picture of us at the Family Reunion hugging Cousin Gloria, Tía Lin & Tío Tony.

I know the Lord needed another angel home in heaven.

Tío Tony needed some company.

The Loss Of A Cousin

By: Collette N. Alaniz

*My eyes filled up with tears as I heard the news
It never occurred to me, how much I could lose
I find myself wishing that it wasn't real
Every time I think about it, pain is all I can feel
Tears fall from my eyes, I can barely see
But my heart tells me that she will always be with me
I'm glad she feels no pain now-she lives in a perfect land
I can still feel the soft touch on my shoulder of her loving hand
I lie in bed and cry at night
And I don't feel any better in the morning light
And I will love and miss her forever
Until the day we are again together.
Together in that perfect place above,
Filled with caring, sharing and love
But until that day comes- I will wipe my tears away.
And hopefully see her again someday*

“ To My Dearest Mother I cannot begin to express the loss that I feel today. I hope you will rest and peace until you are ready to rejoin Dad & Pana in the Lords house. I wish we could have spent more time together when I was younger but the Lord had other plans. I wish Mike and I could have been there to rescue you from the things you had to endure. The saying goes "The lord never gives us more then we can handle" and in your case I'm not so sure. I wish you were still here to see me live my dreams of being a Firefighter/EMT and you would be so proud that I'm a Lieutenant already. You knew my dreams were always just that and I made it Mom! I know one of your proudest moments was to see both of your sons as U.S. Marines and serve our country. I wish you could see your granddaughters they are so great and will miss you so much. It meant everything to me to be with you when you passed and to hold your hand when you made your journey. You were surrounded by your loved ones in the end and I hope it made it a little easier for you. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH AND WILL NEVER FORGET YOU MOM! UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN IN HEAVEN LOVE JOEL.

“ My dear cousin, now you are at peace, at last. I will always remember us as carefree children, playing together so long ago. Life was so simple then. I long for those old times, more than I can say. Tell the old folks hello for me, hug them for me; someday I will see you all. I love you, your cousin Dee.

“ I will always remember you when you were a little girl in your ruffled dress sitting on a swing or the decorative chicken in our front yard. Your smile and your sense on humor that brightened the day for all the people you met. I know that you will see your Dad and you both will laugh again. My thoughts and prayers are with all your family at this time of great loss. God bless you and comfort you. Aunt Rosie

“Happiness is to be found along the way, not at the end of the road, for then the journey is over and it is too late. Today, this hour, this minute is the day, the hour, the minute for each of us to sense the fact that life is good, with all of its trials and troubles, and perhaps more interesting because of them.

- Robert R. Updegraff

Gloria, thank you for every minute, hour and day you were with us. Life is good. You made our lives rich with treasures beyond measure and more interesting. Thank you.

I miss you, more than you'll ever know.
