“ *Our lives will never be the same without you Godfrey. Your laughter, your smile, your Saturday phone calls, your love for your family and your funny comments like "Full Metal" or thinking a Canadian Toonie is called a "Doonie" LOL
We miss you very much!!!
Love Always, James (Jimmy), Carol, Jami-Lee & Kiel Greenshields*

“ Since I was seven years old Godfrey a/K/a my 2nd dad came into my life and remained in my life until I had my second child and we kept in touch here and there even after that. He taught me so so much. He was a very giving man.

There are many wonderful memories that I will always treasure. His laughter, his sense of humor, he taught me how to dance, and boy could he dance! The list goes on. Rest In Peace Dad. You will be missed, I love you. ❤️👼

“ The Dash

I read of a man who stood to speak at the funeral of a friend. He referred to the dates on the tombstone from the beginning...to the end.

He noted that first came the date of birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time that they spent alive on earth. And now only those who loved them know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own, the cars...the house...the cash. What matters is how we live and love and how we spend our dash.

So, think about this long and hard. Are there things you'd like to change? For you never know how much time is left that can still be rearranged.

If we could just slow down enough to consider what's true and real and always try to understand the way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger and show appreciation more and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile, remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So, when your eulogy is being read, with your life's actions to rehash...would you be proud of the things they say about how you spent YOUR dash?

“ More of Godfrey's family, this is Blaine and his family. Blaine is Godfrey's nephew, oldest son of Godfrey's brother Billy who made the transition in 1978 and left behind two young boys. Blaine now has two sons: Sam is on the left(14) and Will is on the right (16), sitting to his right is his beautiful wife Ann. He has such a beautiful family and is so blessed.

“ This is a pleasant memory of Godfrey being challenged by his brother Jami to balance an egg, so much fun, I remember it as though it was yesterday
