“ So many happy memories of happy times our families shared over the years. I even remember the chickens in your yard IN DETROIT! Love you, Uncle Gordy. Hopefully, I'll catch up with you later. For awhile, though, please rest in peace. You deserve it!

I worked for your Dad when he was a Lieutenant at the 14th. Detective Bureau. He was very well liked by all the men and women that reported to him.

The man could not be flustered by anything or anyone. He was a good Boss. I know he will be missed.

Your Dad was my first Lieutenant when I got assigned to the 14th Precinct Detective Bureau as a very young police officer. To say that this group of young officers tested your Dad's patience is an understatement! The good man that he was persevered and he turned out what ended up as a helluva group of detectives! For that I am forever in his debt! Rest In Peace Lieutenant You will be missed, regards to your family.
