“ Some of my fondest memories of Gordon go back a few years when we were growing up in the 1930's & 40's. Gordon spent a lot of time at our farm, especially in the summer. We had a lot of fun, playing various games & occasionally getting into a little mischief, or pranks, as I prefer to call them. Maybe that's why our older siblings often called us "The Katzenjammer Kids" (from a 1930's-40's comic strip of three rowdy kids). My brother Walfred, 1 yr older than Gordon, Gordon, & me, 1 yr younger than Gordon, always chummed together when Gordon was over. It was always a let-down when Gordon had to go home. As adults we went in different directions, but it was always nice to see Gordon at some family function & we enjoyed reminiscing about old times. Rest in Peace, Gordon. Uncle Ray

Condolences to the families of Tracy & Sherri. May the Peace of the Lord be with you. Love, Uncle Ray Marttila
