“ Jamey, Angie & Kailee, Grant will forever be in our hearts. We love you guys; know that you are in my thoughts and prayers every minute of every day. Grant will be missed dearly however we will always have our sweet memories. As painful as they are to us right now, they are what we will smile about later. Grant had a smile that would melt your heart then and now. I will always remember teaching him to walk by holding out blue m&m's!! He wanted them so bad he was willing to take those steps!! You are both such wonderful parents and Kailee you are the best big sister! I don't know any other parents that were and still are as involved in their child's every moment like you two. You truly live for your children and Grant was very lucky to have so much love. Remember that we are always here to support you in anything you need. We love you very much. Grant was a beloved nephew and cousin to us, Sherri, Derek, Brandon, Jessica and Tyler Hane

“ Angie, Jamey and Kailee....you know we love you all so much. It hurts to see you in so much pain, but if there ever was a family that could make it through this unbearable grief, its going to be yours. Just standing there hand-in-hand with you around the bonfire last night, saying the Lord's prayer.....what your family has is truly special. Grant had more love in his 18 months than some people get in a lifetime. We love you and are here for you always!!! Eric, Yvonne, Hailee, Courtney and Owen

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you. So many people have asked if we were related to Grant due to our last name. Please know that there are so many people that you don't even know that are thinking of you and caring about your family during this difficult time. We also lost our son Shawn Conklin when he was 11 years. It's possible that we are related as my husband's family had a farm on Gotfredson Road. If you would like to contact us, please do so.

“ I, like many others, was drawn to the smiling face of your beautiful baby in the Obituaries yesterday, and was so moved by your loss. I wanted to express to you that I cannot imagine a greater heartache, but I, too, believe, that the Lord has a perfect plan and I will hold you in my thoughts and prayers as you take this sad journey. Strangers though we are, much love is being sent your way. God be with you and your family.

“ I see a very tall strong golden angel. In his arms he holds Grant as if he were holding a gift. Grant is smiling and wiggeling. He is very happy. ahe does not know he is being missed so painfully. This magnificent angel will guide Grant through the light when it is time. His new journey has just begun. I'm sorry Grant had to leave so soon. Love and Prayers. Mila.

“ Dear Jamey and Angie, I work with your Father-in-law and although I don't know you personally, I have had the pleasure of hearing about each and every one of the Conklin family members over the years. All of you are treasured by Ron and not a day passes that he doesn't tell us about his family. My favorite story of Grant is when Grandpa thought that Oreo cookies would make a great birthday gift. This week at Cayman it has been overwhelming to see the love and concern from the Cayman employees for all of you. People one by one stop and ask how Ron's kids are doing and want to know if there is anything they can do to help you in any way. And although we know that we can't alleviate the pain you feel we only hope and pray that the obvious love and closeness of your family and friends will be your guidance in the days ahead. With much love, prayers and hope. Tammy

“ I was looking at the obits and had to send you my prayers and thoughts for comfort and love. I can not begin to imagine your loss. Sometimes God's plan just doesn't seem to make any sense. Let your faith get you through this most difficult time. We attend Northridge and I am certain that they will take good care of you. Much love...even if from strangers...your son touched my heart today.
