“ We miss you so much, The holidays have not been the same without you and they never will be. Brandon has picked up so much from u that we would not have known and u would be so proud, he cooks a lot of your dishes now and all he talks about is how he wish u could see how good he can cook now because of u ❤️ We all love u so much, I just wish we could hear u say Grand-daddy is here 1 more time and see Junior just crack up from hearing your voice 🤔 As much as we all miss you I just hope you are resting peacefully, I love u!

“ May you now Rest my Brother and no longer battle what withdrew you from your birth family. I am so sorry for the pain you must have experienced to choose not to be a part of your family. We still love you and your memory. Now your pain has subsided and God has forgiven you 🙏❤️🙏

“ I remember, though it was brief, growing up on Avenue “A” in Haines City, FL with Larry and Greg were mischievous and fun times as kids. After they moved to Detroit, they would visit as teenagers with their Father, Arrie, “Uncle Sarge” during the Summer and hang out on 11th Street, play ball and go skating. Even though we didn’t see each as much as adults, our love never wavered. I last spoke with Greg while organizing a Davis Family Reunion in ATL which he was not able to attend. We were always excited to see and/or talk to Larry and Greg. He will be missed!

My deepest condolences to his wife, Alice his children, grandchildren and his siblings, Larry, Annette and Kevin, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and other relatives and friends. Let us all treasure the memories and keep them alive in our hearts.

Rest In Peace Cousin Greg,

Cousin Bonnie

“ Greg was my younger brother and he was the son of a loving mother; Louverna Townsend. Greg was the most lovable kid you could ever meets. Through all our trials and tribulations Greg managed to keep his joy and often I saw Greg praying before his bedtime. Greg had a good heart and deserved much better than he received. But now may he Rest In Peace and may God have mercy on his soul.

“ *Since reading his Obituary, I have desperately been trying to absorb the life of my brother that I did not get to share with him. Only our younger days I have as memories. Only God knows why this was to be. I pray for understanding as to why we were never to share our lives. We now say goodbye without ever having said hello (as adults). Maybe I'll get to meet my nieces/nephews; grand nieces/nephews if I am Blessed. Love You Knee Baby Boy. Wish I could have told you before you go home to be with our Father. “ *I remember when Larry and Gregory came to live with us from Florida. We always played, Larry, Moe, and Curly. Larry was Moe, I was Larry, and Gregory was Curly. We'd play that for hours popping each other in the head...just being silly. We also played for hours with those little green plastic soldiers. All over the house! There was this time when Larry, Gregory, and I were playing in the backyard. A big fat rat came charging at us. Gregory and I took off noting but smoke behind us. Larry held his ground. He has a big log or brick in his hands. He held it up over his head and waited...and waited for just the right time. Then, he threw that log or brick at the rat... that thing did a 180 so fast! Gregory and I were at the front of the house huffing and puffing and laughing...Larry was the savior! I love you Greg....❤️ He knows the Secret Now....
"May The God Be Pleased With Him"
Peace,
Your Cuz....Pat❤️*
