“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ To many of us, Greg appeared as a hard-charger who was headed `straight ahead' ... but as our Pastor preached today, a `gracious' person looks at another person/situation and sees what can be and acts to improve the situation; not lingering on what is wrong or upsetting. Greg would work with everyone to improve EVERYONE ... as fast as possible & with style. Thanks for the lesson...

“ I was deeply saddened to hear about Greg's death. I will always remember his big smiling face and ready sense of humor. Living far away and not having seen Greg in years means that he will always be that young heathy fun loving guy my memories. God bless your family. He is at peace now.

“ Greg was the kind of person who could talk to anybody--and DID. He always made friends with the nurses this past year so they would remember him. Even when he came for treatment in Houston he was bringing balloons to the staff at the clinic. Everyone always knew who he was. I loved it when he called me (as he did many others) and just said "Hi". I may not have heard from him in a year, but I always knew it was him. He knew things about me that no one else knew. I will miss him so much.

“ We know this has been a long, difficult journey and pray you find comfort in your memories. Your strength, love and faith made the journey easier for Greg because he did not want to leave you so soon. We were touched by his thoughtfulness as he always stopped to express his gratitude for any small gesture we made during the past year. You can look into the faces of Hayden and David to see Greg is still with you. We are so sorry for your loss.

“ Greg was like a brother to me. I loved his heart, his passion, his thoughtfulness, his fighting spirit, and his wild side. But his most endearing quality was his love of family especially Mary, Jennifer, Haden, David, Tony, Billy, Bob and his family, and his mom and dad. He was a very loving person and he bestowed that love abundantly on his family and extended it to his friends. Greg was my great friend and for me and his other close friends there will be a hole in our collective souls that can not be filled. He will always be with me in my memory and my heart and so he will live on but I will miss you my friend, my brother.

“ Mary and Jennifer, I was remembering Greg talk about his deep faith as he faced his treatments. Remember that he was a man of deep faith and great joy. Mary, you watched as he instilled both in Jen. Together you will watch his legacy live on as both Hayden and David grow in faith and joy...His gift to you that lives on... My thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. Blessings, Lynn

“ Dear Mary, Jen, Tony, Hayden and David, I know how much you have been trying to prepare for this moment, and how impossible this all seems. I also know your faith will hold you up when you need help, and the memories of your husband, dad, and grandpa will carry you through the rest of your days. Greg will always be with you. He was such a good and caring man. His endless love for his family was evident to all who knew him. My prayers are with you.

“ Roger & I were so sad to hear of Greg's passing. I will remember that Greg was always happy and generous to help whenever I asked him.

Roger remembers that when the Mars family moved into the neighborhood, they stretched wires and OJ cans across the street to have conversations and get into mischief, but they had lots of fun. Good memories and God Bless.

“ My sentiment remains constant and true...indelible impressions on my heart and mind. I am grateful our paths crossed and that Greg did not take no for an answer. He had an uncanny ability to take one small moment in time and add it to another and another...before you knew it indelible impressions! My heart is with you, Mary, Jen, Tony, Hayden and David...hugs and love, today and everyday.

“ Mrs. MARRS, Jennifer, Tony, Hayden and David, I am so sorry for your loss. I know how much you all love Mr. MARRS and how much he loves all of you. He always spoke of you all with pride, love and excitement. The memories you have will be with you always and the parts of him that are in you will shine in you more than ever before.
Heaven has a new magnificent spirit.
