“ I could fill this page with stories of Greg, 😞. I met him in high school, he became part of our family by marrying my younger sister after high school, he was fun, hard working, good father and good husband. We all shared life, laughs, many BBQ's, pool parties, and he blended in with our large family well. His sense of humor will be greatly missed. He loved his family, and it's returned. Rest easy Greg, I know ur with the Lord. 🙏 Hope they have Fox news up there. 😞 You are greatly missed.

“ Greg and i were friends since grade school. So many memories of school, cars, houses, family and friends. One time we went to Toronto for something to do, no rooms to get and drove back. Another greg wanted to go smelt fishing. Drove to Point Peele, new nets and waders. Brought in multiple buckets of smelt, loaded in pinto and drove back. At the border the agent asked as i rolled down the window “anything to declare” rolled his eyes and said Just Go.
To me greg will never be gone.

“ He was a good man that loved his family above all. He had a quick wit and could think up some very good pranks too. He will be missed by us all. May God hug Greg tightly in HIS arms. Love you Greg

“ Just a very precious one to me. I had the privilege of praying with Greg and he accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior. I know he's with the Lord and I look forward to one day seeing him again. Praise you Jesus. With loving thoughts of Greg. Jan
