“ Praying that God grant the family peace in your quiet moments and comfort to replace your grief. So sorry for your loss. I know your hearts are heavy right now. But in the days to come your smile will return as you remember the good times you shared with Hal. Our Dear Lord Jesus suffered much, so that one dday we will no longer experience the pain of losing our love ones. Revelation 21:4 promises, "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death Will Be No More, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain, be anymore..." Until then, may this promise from God give you hope and bring you peace.

“ It hardly seems real. All my life I have always said the names Sheila and Hal like you were one person. I've always felt close to you both, I don't know of any time that you were not trying to make a joke, or being goofy....the guy who could take any joke. Christmas Eve, Thanksgiving, any random get together will never be the same. Everyone misses you so much, if you could only see now how much love is being sent your way! My love always xoxoxoxo

“ Sheila,
I'm very sorry for your loss and my favorite memory of Hal was kathy and I at your house in Westland and he came home from work and the sparkle in his eye when he saw you and I just knew that there was TRUE LOVE between the two of you.
Kathy and family ,I know that all of you are missing him and that Hal will truly be missed by all who knew him. So very sorry

“ We only knew Hal for just over four years, but it seemed much longer. How thankful we are. Tom counts it a blessing that he and Hal served on the board together and from that stemmed a true friendship. We are going to miss Hal and his smile, his forthrightness, and his caring ways. Trail Creek is a better place to live because Hal took such pride in his community. Sheila, we know that your life will be forever changed, but we pray that your memories of all that you shared together will bring joy to your heart and a smile to your face. Rest in peace Hal.

“ We are both shocked and saddened of Hal's passing. We have such fun memories and will always remember the good times we shared. He had a big personality and we will miss his great wit and charm. Our community just won't be the same without him. He was a good neighbor and a great friend and will truly be missed. In friendship and sorrow, Mark and Kelley Collins
