“ As I read the obituary for Mr. Villerot I was truly impressed by the outstanding and full life he lived. Never-the-less, 90 years of life is still much too short. How thankful we are that our grand Creator, Jehovah plans to restore his original purpose and make it possible for all mankind (including our loved ones we have lost in death) to live forever under perfect conditions. (Matthew 6:10; Job 14:14 & 15). Please accept our condolences as you deal with the loss of Mr. Villerot and contemplate the hope of seeing him once again.

“ Hi, my deepest condolences. I bowled against him many times and he was a great competitor and a true gentleman. I never saw him out of character. God's speed Speed.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Harold will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Harold again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Harold seems like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ I lost a great friend of 35 years. Harold was an opponent in our bowling league in 1977. In 1998 - 2004 we bowled on the same team. We talked nearly daily, especially about sports. He sure knew his Tiger's....he would tell me stories of the Tiger's as far back as the 30's and 40's. One cool thing that happened to Harold when he turned 87 is learning the computer. He loved to receive emails and even had a facebook account at 90....AWESOME....I will miss Harold dearly.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. Harold was a great neighbor! My childhood memories include the smell of his cigar and the sound of Tiger games played on his radio...and the countless number of times my brothers and I had to hop the fence to find balls/toys that went flying into his yard! We send you peace and prayers, The Weavers (Dave, Christina, David & Eva)
