“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dear Margaret, I was so sorry to learn today of your Mother's passing. I am especially sad that i didn't know in time to stop by to pay my respect and say hello to you and your family. While she obviously lived a very full life, she will be missed by all who knew her. She was one of my absolute favorite people in town, always with a smile and kind word. We are all blessed to have known such a wonderful lady and I know your whole family will keep her memory alive and close to your hearts. Please let me know if there is anything I can do for you. Sincerely, Glenn Glenn and Gail Anderson

“ My deepest sympathy of the passing of Hazel. She was such a kind and gentle lady. I loved to listen to her stories that she would share with me. I only knew her for two years but she deeply touched my life. You will be missed Ms. Hazel. I know you will watch over us all in Heaven as you did on earth.

“ Margaret and Jim - What a wonderful person and how lucky you are to have had her for such a long life. Hazel and I loved one another from the first day we met. Earlier this month we talked about the fabulous times we shared. What a blessing she was!!! CJ

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Aunt Hazel was full of life and lit up the room with her zest. When we saw her in October I told her "I want to be like you when I grow up", her response "Oh honey".
