“ To the Family of Hazel Marie Lewis: I'm so sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one, Hazel, she will most definitely be missed... Please take comfort in knowing that our Heavenly Father, Jehovah knows when we are sad and hurting. How do we know this? The Bible tells us at (Psalms 34:18 it states: Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. Not only does he know this, he has promised to bring back our dead loved ones at his appointed time. There are many Scriptural proofs that can help us to see that. Here are some: Revelation 21:3,4; John 5:28,29; Acts 17:31; Acts 2:32 to name a few of them. see www.jw.org for more information regarding the resurrection promise.

“ *To the Bambach/Lewis Family,
I am so sadden by your loss. Hazel was such a wonderful and kind woman. I still recall with great fondness her beautiful smile and kind and pleasant ways. She was always so encouraging to me, especially when I was a new Christian. I knew she was praying for me and was a great example of what a godly woman should be.*

She reared a wonderful family. I have been privileged to call you all friends. Anytime I think of Hazel I think of you all. Her steady faith was inspirational. If she had questions about her faith journey and its trials (and she probably did, who wouldn't) she never let me hear them. The manner in which she went through some of those has taught me how to have great faith in the midst of the storms of life.

*We have lost a treasure. I'm looking forward to seeing her again!
Much Love,
Joe Stafford*
