“ Heather was my Best Friend... The little sister I never had. We were baptized together in July of 1985. I'll always love and admire Grandma & Grandpa for their devotion. She went through so much at such a tender age. She probably did not have the words to describe- I think even though she was cared for by so many people she still felt alone. I know she isn't in pain anymore- The Lord took her by the hand, and she is made whole again. We will all miss you Heather... We will be together again. And a glorious reunion that will be! But for now, I pray that our precious memories and the love that we have for one another will comfort each and everyone...

“ I love you Heather, and still can't believe you're gone. I wish I would have done more. I'm sorry. I love you.
