“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com
Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ When I think of "Aunt Honey," I see and feel beauty. She defined every aspect of the word "Beautiful."

A woman who had a distinctive personality, with an amazing sound of love in her voice and warmth in her laugh. She could make you laugh at anything, including herself. She was especially kind and caring to everyone I saw her encounter. She knew the intrinsic value of her family and friends and never failed to show them whenever she could, especially in the kitchen. She loved talking about the fun times she had experienced in her life and the wonderful man God blessed her with as a husband in Uncle Cas. She could make you feel her joy when she talked by the twinkle in her eyes. She was someone you could trust with your most precious thoughts and concerns and always count on to brighten your day, even when her own days and her health was being challenged. She could inexplicably make you feel really good about yourself just by being around her. This was especially true during some of the saddest days of my life.

I feel such great sadness that she is gone, but the beauty that she brought into my life will live on in my memories forever. I'm so very sad that my phone will no longer "ring out of the blue," with her lovely and caring voice saying.....".Hi, dear, it's Aunt Honey, and I was just calling to check on you."

But taking a page out of her learned book of lifetime wisdoms, I'm also smiling.

I know I will hear her laugh and see her smile again. I trust in God's promise.....It is only through death that your "Beautiful," mother, will now live forever.

See you again, Aunt Honey!

To all of her family, my love and deepest sympathy to each of you. I life you up in thoughts and prayer. May God's love bless you with His caring peace in the days ahead.

*Love,
Mary D. Witkowski
