

Helen A. Marianos

July 21, 1931 - November 6, 2019

Marianos, Helen, November 6, 2019, age 88 of Plymouth. Very dearly beloved wife of the late Ward. Very loving mother of Nick (Celeste), Tom (Stephanie), and Susan (Chris) Scheevel. Proud grandmother of Sophie, Alex, Joshua, Caleb, Seth, and Daniel. Dear sister of John (Angie) Anderson, and the late Judith Hill. Dear aunt of Rich (Kerri), Jill, Tom, Anna (the late Jack), Leigh (Dave), Cathi, Dawn (Doug), and John (Shauna). Visitation Saturday, November 9th 1 PM until the 3 PM Funeral Service at Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, 46401 W Ann Arbor Road (btwn Sheldon and Beck) Plymouth. Memorial contributions may be made to VFW National Home for Children or the Deacons Fund-Trinity Church. Helen was extremely devoted to her family. She was involved in all of the children's activities. She was also involved with Bible Study Fellowship for over 20 years, as well as serving in leadership roles in the Christian Woman's Club. She and her husband Ward were long time active members at Trinity Presbyterian Church, volunteering in several different roles at Trinity. Helen will be interred with her husband Ward's cremains at Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly. The Family would like to express special thanks to the caregivers at Independence Village Plymouth and the staff at Kindred Hospice.

“ We are sending prayers to the Marianos family at this time of sorrow.

*Helen and Ward were the model of thoughtfulness and caring for Ward's new employees at Standard Oil Company of California. Their celebration of births of children and career milestones showed a generosity of spirit which marked them as special people. They will be missed.

“ Helen you were a special lady to me, my other mom. I enjoyed the Friday dinners at the house in Concord with you and Ward and Tom and Sue. Even after breaking Micks mose, I was still allowed to come over. You are now in a blessed place and till we meet again.

“ Anytime I see chickens from now I'll think of Helen. When taking her back to her apartment after meals, I would jokingly knock on her door before we entered and ask 'Anyone Home?' Helen would answer 'No one but us chickens'. I'm been blessed with Helen in my life's journey.
