“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any crying or death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all who died (sleeping in death) will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tomb, John 5:25-28. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ As one of Joe's kids we loved the time we would spend with Aunt Helen and Uncle Eddie, especially during the celebrations of life -- Flrst Communion, Confirmations, graduations, etc... She was able to make all who entered her home feel iike family.

During Joe's last years he reminisced often about life with all his sisters, and Helen had a special place. His stories always brought a twinkle to Joe's eyes.

I am sorry for your loss, and know she is being welcomed now by family and loved ones in the Lord's house.

“ Thank the Lord for a big sister like you, and the good advice and support you gave me. I have many beautiful memories of family Sunday dinners on the farm with Mom and Dad. We welcomed each member to our family with a celebration. I will miss you.

“ Grandma, You will be deeply missed. I have so many wonderful memories of you and will cherish them all. I've never forget Friday evening visits, watching T.G.I.F. and eating Neapolitan Ice Cream in cake cones. The Best! Love you always, Katie
