“ Hank was remembered today on the “I Grew up in Plymouth” Facebook Page, and I hope his family can read the wonderful memories of a wonderful man that were posted there. He was a part of the lives of literally thousands of students in Plymouth and every one of us remembers him fondly. RIP Hank Rupert.

“ I am a member of the "Dennis Market on Canton Center Road" family. Hank, as I knew him from Gallimore School, as a customer in our store, and as a candidate for Township Trustee always had a kind word and a smile for people. He will be missed.

“ To Hank's family: I have often thought about Hank and his retirement. He told me about the hall in Herminie.Penna.Much to my surprise, I lived in that tiny town for awhile. My grandparents settled there when they came from Russia. My Parents were married in the tiny church. God Rest His Soul! SDEROO

“ Mary and family,
It was our pleasure knowing Henry and you through the years. We will miss seeing him dearly. He was definitely one of our favorites.
