“ At times Hershel couldn't finish a sentence without laughing. I always figured there would be time to enjoy his special humor and style. Somehow he would be yelling at me and laughing with me at the same time. Im going to miss him. I know he loved his kids and grand kids and he always had a smile talking about them all. That Hershel sneaky "i know something smile". I can only imagine how full of joy he is today healthy in paradise with Birtha laughing and joking away.
