“ *Hilda (Mother)'s greatest legacy is her two children, Linda and John.
Her love of art, reading, needlepoint, opera, symphony, literature, poetry are all around us as we remember her spirit and her love of her children, flowers, beautiful things and the birds outside her window. We shall miss her but will remember her through all that she has left behind. I thank her for her son and for telling me how grateful she was that I was in her son's life. Much love, Germaine*
