“ I will always remember the last time i talked to my grandfather on the phone.He only could talk for about five minutes but he still talked i told him how i was doing in my pregnancy and that i was having a boy ,which sadly he never got to meet who is his first greatgrandchild,he told me you take good care of that baby and yourself and he had to go because he could hardly speak.He knew he was very ill and unfortunatly didnt have much time left. He was a stubborn ol hillbilly ,ha thats how i think of him,and a good man and provider for his family.I love and miss him very much.I love you papa. Love you grandbaby, Crystal

“ I write to do just like the greatest man whoever lived the earth did, as recordrd at John 33:35. He cried with the bereved. And also Romans 12-15 tell us the same. I encourage you to read the scriptures from your personal copy of the Bible. The comforting message is that God has promised to raise back the dead and you wil be able to see Joseph again and no man will say i'm sick again. John 5:28-29 and Isaiah 65:19 confirms that. Sincerely
