“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any crying or death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all who died (sleeping in death) will hear his voice and come out of the memorial tomb, John 5:25-28. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ I stopped to see Doug a couple of months ago to let him know about the 50th reunion coming in 2013. We had a wonderful talk and I am so glad I got to do that. He was such a nice guy and I loved what he had done with his house. My condolences to the family. He will be greatly missed by you and his classmates. Cheryl Wright Wurster

“ Doug was a good friend, an ex-swimmer . . . a very good one. Our fathers were friends, in fact I think both of them shared time at PHS. I send my warmest condolences to Doug's family and friends. With sincerest sorrow, Gary Gould

“ Shane ~ I am so sorry for such a loss. Your father is a very memorable guy. I remember all the fun times we had at your dad's house during our college days. I loved those nights we played Uno til the wee hours of night. I always loved coming over because it just felt comfortable and there is such a presence about it. You and your dad always had a strong (and most times unique - LOL) bond to one another and I just hope the bond I have with my dad can mirror the one you had with yours. Death is such a thing to deal with, isn't it! Quite frankly, it really sucks! But, as with life, we must deal with the end of life and at the very least you and the people who love you both were able to spend his last days enjoying one another's company and reflecting on the past which put a huge smile on your dad's face, your face and all of our faces. Your father will be dearly missed and we will always have good memories to talk about when we visit the Cash house. Cheers to new memories going forward! Your dad is in a good place looking down on you with a big smile. I know he is proud of you! If there is anything you need, you just let us know. Love you, Shane!
