

Irene E. Dzialak

December 21, 1927 - April 12, 2019

Dzialak, Irene, April 12, 2019 age 91 of Dearborn. Loving wife of the late George. Beloved aunt of many nieces, and nephews. Born and raised in Detroit, Irene spent summers with her maternal grandparents in Port Huron.

After high school, Irene attended the Cadet Nursing Program at St. Mary's Nursing School. Upon graduation in 1947, she accepted employment at Yates Clinic, then sponsored by American Cancer Society, which later became Michigan Cancer Foundation and is now Karmanos Cancer Institute

Irene met and married George at Visitation Parish on September 30, 1950.

She retired in 1983 after many rewarding years of helping people. Irene met and worked with some of our area's top physicians who were involved in early cancer detection and treatment. She also had the opportunity to attend international cancer meetings as an "Associate Member". Meetings were held every four years in a different country: Japan, Italy, Argentina.

Following retirement Irene & George traveled widely and became active members in the Dearborn Seniors Group. For several years they hosted various activities at their apartment complex club house. The main activity being Pinochle card parties which Irene continued after George's death on March 12, 1997.

“ Aunt Irene always had a twinkle in her eye, a smile on her face, and a wonderful story to tell. The Conroy family always enjoyed the Christmas treats she'd send and the holiday cards sent with love - always keeping us in mind. We thought of her often as the Crown Vic, relocated to California, often arrived at our house with our grandkids ready for a visit. I'm sure Uncle George will be happy to see her again! Sending love to all that will miss her. Much love, Karen, Jeffrey and the Conroy Boys.
