“ Irene and Doug met my friend and I from the bus station for my first visit to the USA. Irene always made room for me, showed me love and shared her family and home.

*Irene was so good with crafts. I hang our Christmas stocking up every year that she made for us. They will placed this year with tears in my eyes for the loss of a very special lady. Love you Irene.
God bless xx*

“ Our family grew up with the Schoonovers at the Methodist Church in Wayne. Working in the kitchen with Irene, we always laughed as we worked. Both her and Doug were on many committees with my dad, David. I am grateful for her love of God, her contributions to the church and to her kindness to my family. She will be missed by family and friends.
