“ We were welcomed into our new home in Dearborn Heights next door to Irene and Richard nearly 40 years ago We were blessed to have them as our neighbors for more than half that time. We miss her bright smile and beautiful sculptured hair. God Bless her soul and the entire family. Love, Jerry and Merrilee Barkoff

“ Irene loved “Mfish”, your cousin Tom. When he brought me to meet your momma, she welcomed me with joy and laughter. Her gracious hospitality and spirit of love are the memories I cherish. Never forgotten will be your dad chasing her with the large kielbasa’s 😊

Donna, Diane and I are sorry for your loss. We didn't know your mom personally but through you I believe we do have a glimpse of what a wonderful person she is. Your belly button is your forever connection to her. Whenever you are having thoughts about her or conversations with her (and you will) give it a rub. Great solace comes from that simple act. Thinking of you.
