“ I have so many fond memories of Uncle Ike. I mostly remember our many conversations at Grandma Ballard's in Bethesda at numerous Thanksgivings or some other gathering, and somehow they always found there way to college football (and usually Ohio State vs that team up north!). He always had time to talk with me, even though I was a silly, snot-nosed little kid. What a loving, kind man. Uncle Ike, may God continue to bless you as you are now in His presence, and may His peace be with your family and friends as they mourn your passing.
