“ Ma
You watched me take my first breath.
I watched you take your last.

You had such a gigantic personality, I miss you but I have memories to last my lifetime. Rest in Heavenly Peace.

“ Oh so many memories. I loved to go visit her and she always had the best attitude. I was grateful to of had such an amazing aunt. She told me, "I came from a line of long livers". Tuesday she said. "I can't live forever". You will in all our hearts.

I remember the storm rainy day I brought my granddaughter, Kynsley to meet her. She showed the baby how to set the amigo on rabbit and turtle speed. Well unbeknownst to us she put the cart on rabbit speed, sending Auntie flying in reverse down the hallway. I will miss her so much. My other granddaughter never met her only talked to her on the phone a few times. She said we will all know when Auntie Iva is around by seeing the butterflies. She never knew my aunt was called. "The Butterfly Lady". Love you Aunt Iva
