“ My brother Jack was my buddy. We hung together at a young age, in our early teens, and after my husband Chuck passed he was there for me many many times. When I was about 10 and Jack was about 8, I had split my hand open on a wire fence about a block or two from home. Jack rode me home on the back of his 3 wheeler. He was watching over me even at that young age. I am missing him greatly.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Jack will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Jack again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Im so sorry on the loss of Uncle Jack. I will miss him very much! I keep thinking back on the times from when I was little and we would come out to visit and Uncle Jack would take me out for a walk and we would gather pop bottles and have our talks. For a little girl, those were fun times :- ) I will miss him calling me by my middle name and hearing his jokes. We have had our ups and downs but he will always be my uncle and Godfather and I will miss him very much. It makes me really sad that I wont get to see him anymore, all I have are the memories. My love, prayers, and condolences go to his family. I love you Uncle Jack!

“ Please accept my sincere condolence for the loss of Jack he will truly be missed. Take comfort in knowing that the Bible holds out hope and comfort for those you have lost to the enemy death. Soon now God will remove the cause of death and all sorrow as stated at: (Revelation chapter 21:verse 4 says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." So, That verse shows how God will remove Sickness, old age and death in the restored paradise earth to come.
