

Jack Blevins

August 1, 1939 - June 27, 2021

Jack Lee Blevins, 81, of Houghton Lake passed away on Sunday June 27, 2021 at home surrounded by his loved ones.

Jack was born on August 1, 1939 in Cumberland, Kentucky to Wiley and Ginnie (Minor) Blevins. Jack worked as a general laborer for Ford Motor Company for 33 years. He also worked as a butcher at Kroger, a constable for Canton Township, and a police officer for Inkster Police Department, all while working at Ford. Jack was married on September 7, 2013 in Houghton Lake to Josephine (Wireman) Chapin. He was a member of the Houghton Lake Sportsman Club. Jack loved hunting, fishing, and hunting for golf balls which he took home to sell. Jack's dog, Pebbles, had a very special place in his heart and now Jack and Pebbles have been reunited again. A special thanks to his niece Dawnna Briggs that Jack referred to as his drug dealer, you see, Jack had a PHD in BS.

Surviving Mr. Blevins are his loving wife Josephine Chapin of Houghton Lake; daughter, Vicki (Ron) Chouinard; son, John (Denise) Blevins; sister, Shirley Rowe; two step daughters, Penny (Bryan) Smith, and Brenda (Bryon) Franklin; eleven grandchildren; fourteen great grandchildren; four great-great grandchildren; special friends, Danny Renberg, and Ben Sawade. Jack was preceded in death by his parents; first wife, Ann Blevins; brother, Emery Blevins; sister, Helen Stuart; grandson, David Martell II; great-granddaughter, Amanda Witt.
