“ It is with great sadness, yet profound respect that I send my deepest condolences to the family of Jack Kindree. I worked for Jack for his last seven years with Ford. He was the best Manager I had in my 34 years with the Company. He literally showed me the world. He introduced me to so many fine Ford people I can't count. He was funny, smart, and extremely hard working. He was a wonderful Mentor. I worked with him on maintenance processes which yielded Preventive Maintenance Excellence Program (PME); Reliability & Maintainability In Manufacturing Equipment (R&M); and finally Ford Total Productive Maintenance (FTPM). These all led to the development of the Ford Production System. Jack was a family man; a fun loving guy; and a person with a vision and the ability to make a difference. Well done Jack!

“ Jack was the kindest man we ever met. We loved our visits with him and enjoyed the stories of his many adventures. He worked with the original astronauts (John Glenn, Alan Shepard, Neil Armstrong and others). He also shared his wisdom and guidance with our foster son D.J. He served his country, community and church with loyalty and love. Although we are grateful he is reunited with Joan, his son, and daughter in law, we will miss him forever.

Mr. Kindree was our neighbor for over 50 years. He always had a smile and positive words to share. We loved listening to his stories just as much as he loved telling them. It was always heartwarming to hear him talk about his wife and family. His service to his faith, family and country will always be an inspiration to us. What a great neighbor and friend. Rest in peace dear Mr. Kindree.

I just came across this obituary. I served as associate pastor at First Presbyterian Church, Plymouth, 1989-1995. Jack, and his wife, Joan, were members there. After my family and I moved to Seattle to serve another church, Jack wrote the kindest letters to me. He always included a generous check "to take your wife and children out for dinner". My wife and I are parents of six (two biological and four adopted from foster care). Jack's gift "expanded" with our ever-growing family, and he offered love and support in every letter. May he rest in peace among the saints!
