“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. At times such as these it is comforting to know that you can turn to Almighty God because he cares (1Pet. 3:12) and know that a time will soon come when all of our mourning will come to completion (Isaiah 60:20). A time will soon be, when we death will be no more according to Isaiah 25:8. May you look forward to these conditions along with the resurrection hope spoken of at Acts 24:15. These promises are provided by Almighty God, so they will come to be.

“ Hold fast to your memories, to all of the cherished moments of the past. For the blessings and the laughter, the joys and the celebrations, the sorrow and the tears. Those special moments and memories in your life with your mom will never change. They will always be in your heart today and forevermore. Our sincere condolences.

“ Aunt Jackie was the best Aunt in the whole world...she meant so very much to me and I will miss her terribly. However, I know she is in a much better place and she is not suffering anymore. I will never forget her..her soft spoken ways and her great sense of humor.....when we got together we always laughed and had a great time.

All my love,
Shirley

“ To Uncle Al and all my dear cousins,
I wil always treasue the memories of all the great times at our family gatherings. Aunt Jackie had a great influence on me from from a very early age and was truly a "grand" woman. As you, we will miss her deeply and remember her in our thoughts and prayers.
