

Jacqueline Lee "Jackie" Bagnasco

August 20, 2005

Jacqueline (Leichtenberg) Bagnasco, age 44 of Sleepy Hollow, IL, August 20, 2005, following a courageous battle with cancer. Jackie, as she was known to family and friends, was born on June 13, 1961 in Fresno, California, the daughter of Jim and Gerry (Benson) Leichtenbert. She obtained her bachelor's degree from California State University in San Bernadino. On November 10, 1984 in Riverside, California, she married Joseph G. Bagnasco where they had two sons; Joseph James and Anthony Thomas. In 1999 the family moved to Sleepy Hollow, Illinois. Jackie was a homemaker, worked and volunteered at various local schools, was an avid reader, and most of all enjoyed spending time with her family. In addition to her husband and sons, Jackie is survived by her parents, her sister Jill Mattingly, six nieces, seven nephews and many generous friends. Visitation was held at the Miller Funeral Home in Dundee, Illinois. Funeral mass was held at St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church, celebrant was Fr. Richard Rosinski. Family and friends will gather 10 AM August 26, 2005 until an 11 AM Memorial Service at Vermeulen Funeral Home, 46401 West Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth, Michigan, officiated by Fr. Thomas Belczak. A private interment will take place at the Lapham Cemetery in Salem, Michigan. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, to Hospice of Northeastern Illinois, or to Fox Valley Hospice.
