“ I'm so very sorry and totally shocked to hear about Jaime. She has always been such a strong and confident woman.... She was beautiful and spunky and she had this way about her that captured everyone's attention.... We were both little rebels, and I will miss her so very much. Debbie, I wish I could come out there and give you a big hug... I would love to say good bye to Jaime, but I will have to do it out here in California. Debbie if you get this please call me - I have been trying to find anyway to contact you since i found out last monday... “ Dear Debbie:

I have tried over and over again in my mind to search for the words to express the sadness that I feel inside for you at this time.

Your dedication, loyalty and devotion to Jamie, your granddaughter, your husband, as well as your family and friends is to be greatly admired. You are truly one of the most courageous women that I know.

I sat here this evening and watched the tape, which I received today of our 30th class reunion.

I couldn't help but to be touched again by the words of Rob Gordon talking about September 11.

May God continue to keep you and your family in his arms at this time of sorrow. We all know that Jamie is at peace now. Her pain is gone and she has gone to be with our Lord.

Please feel free to contact me if you ever want to talk. I am here for you as you would be for me.
