“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Genevieve will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Genevieve again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Genevieve seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Hello Maureen and family, My parents informed me of Jean's passing and I just wanted to let you know I am thinking about you all. I have very fond childhood memories of growing up next door to Jean & Maureen back on London Ct. I hope that you are all doing well under the circumstances. Love, Kristine

“ Dear Maureen & Mark, I'm so sorry I didn't find out about this before today. This is terribly sad news and my heart is with you as you wander through the days and weeks ahead. What a joy your grandmother was. I remember visiting her in Florida with Dad/Grampa Shugg and going out for lunch. What a sweet and gracious lady. My sincerest condolences, Mary & Russ

“ Jene's memory will always be cherished for the generosity, love, kindness and caring she demonstrated to all that entered her life and home. I will always treasure how she opened her summer cottage to me as a young adult, how she always showed nothing but kindness to our family, the wonderful holidays spent with her, her children and grand children. How she always had time to make everyone who entered her home feel special and fed their hunger with and abundance of love and the most incredible food! Her ability to gently encourage her family without intruding. Her kindness will always be remembered and her smile will be terribly missed.
