“ Such a family orientated gent who I believe gained everything he ever wanted, a family of his own, along with an exciting new life in the US cut tragically short. You have left your mark on the world and with people who love you across the globe Jim. You succeeded and excelled in all walks in of life and seen a lot of the world in the unduly short time you were blessed with. I didn't get to see you often being in the UK, but thanks for the memories- trip on the train to amsterdam, darts in the pimpelar and in your room where there were nearly as many computer screens as your dvd collection..ok maybe not that many!! Men in black 1 and 2 at the cinema and going to the snooker hall. Jim Beattie you were as genuine and as decent as they come. I last saw you at Granny's 80th, we all loved Granny of course but I especially sensed the obvious love and respect you had for her, whether in her presence or speaking about her, which completely sums you up. Gone to soon and never to be forgotten. You'll live on through your family, who will carry you with them always in their hearts, giving them the strength to carry on, achieve and surpass their dreams, and make you a very proud man watching over them. Well done Jim, on a life extremely well lived, unfairly cut short.

“ Jim was the best dad anyone could have. He always treated me like one of his daughters. His sense of humor will be missed tremendously. He was a great husband, father and son from what I've seen. He had a caring heart and always worked hard at work, around the house and with everything he did. He will be missed very much. To Liz and Jim's parents I'm thinking of you and the family.

“ Liz and Family,

We were devastated to hear the news of Jim's passing. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time. Jim was a great man, both on and off the clock. On Monday's, Jim was always be quick to talk about he spend the weekend selling girl scout cookies, or how he was honing his BBQ skills, ensuring that nobody went hungry. We shared a lot of stories about what it was like to be a dad, how to get our kids to eat more vegetables, and how much fun it was to play video games with them. That's how I knew he was great.

Here is a picture from a conference in Las Vegas that we attended together in 2015. We're all going to miss him dearly.

“ My deepest condolences to the Beattie family (Liz, Rick, Tricia, Sarah, & Ailene) for your lost. May you find comfort and peace during these sorrowful time.

Jim, your cheerful and optimistic self will be missed at work. As far as I am concerned, Jim, you can write as many "inefficient SQLs" as you like. And Eric Henderson said, you can have as many indexes as you want.

Rest in peace, buddy.
